

Bluebird Habitat

Nestboxes are provided for Eastern Bluebirds (Sialia sialis) and other native cavity-nesting birds.

Bluebirds frequently return to identical nesting sites year after year.

Bluebirds are members of the thrush family.

They sing a melodic warbling song.

They feed on insects and berries.

These nestboxes are monitored and maintained by Kendall County Partnership for Parks and Texas Master Naturalists.